

Picture waiver form: free photo release form template

Not legal advice. This template is general information. No lawyer has reviewed it.

1. Subject

Write the full name, contact details and age group of the person in the images.

2. User

Name the photographer, school, employer or business that gets permission to use the images.

3. Images covered

Give the shoot date, the place and a short description, so both sides know which photos and video the form covers.

4. Permitted uses

List each use the subject agrees to, for example website, print, social media, advertising or internal training.

5. Media

State the formats the permission covers, such as still photos, video, audio or a combination.

6. Duration

State how long the permission lasts, for example 1 year, 3 years or with no end date.

7. Payment, if any

Write the fee, product or other value the subject gets. Write "none" if there is no payment, so nobody guesses later.

8. Signatures

Give a signature and date line to the subject, a parent or guardian line for anyone under 18, and a line for the photographer or business.
